Mrs. L. T. Stewart of Wildie, after an illness of several months, died last week. For over six months that terrible disease, consumption, had been preying upon her system. The burial took place Wednesday in the Henry Hannaman burying ground.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

The big planting mill plant belonging to the estate of the late Samuel Hardlag at Danville, which was to have been sold at public auction was disposed of privately by J. L. Bruce, as administrator and representative of the estate, to James H. Gentry and Allen Kenney. The price paid for the property was $10,000 in cash. The new owners will take possession of the plant and begin its operation at once.

Last fall, while fishing under Cook's cliffs, "Beddow" Morrow dropped a small pearl handle knife into the water. The place being deep, no effort was made to find it. Last week while Messrs. R. E. McRoberts, the druggist, and W. J. Romans, the carriage man, were fishing at the same spot, the latter landed an 18-inch jumper. The two gentlemen believe in cleaning their fish on the river bank, and proceeded to scale and cut open the jumper. They were very much surprised to find a knife in its "craw," but still more so when Mr. Morrow identified it as the one he dropped into the stream last fall. The blades were very rusty, but otherwise the knife is all right.—Central Record.

"WILFUL WASTE"

MAKES WOEFUL WANT.

That old copybook maxim finds its most forcible application in the waste of vitality, which is called "burning the candle at both ends." A woman is often tempted beyond her strength by domestic or social demands. Some day she awakens from this waste of strength to the woeful want of it. She has become weak, nervous and miserable.

For weak, nervous, run-down women, there is no better tonic and nerve than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It restores the appetite, quiets the nerves and gives refreshing sleep. It cures local diseases peculiarly womanly which undermine the general health. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"No doubt you have forgotten me, but after you read my letter you will remember me," writes Mrs. Annie E. Moring, of 231 7th Avenue, N. W., Roanoke, Va. "In the year 1897, I wrote to you for advice, which you gave me free of charge. When I wrote to you I was a wreck; I could not walk straight for pains in my abdomen; could not sit down, lie down, or get any ease at all. I had what was called the best doctor here, but did not get any better until I went through a course of your medicine. I took eight bottles each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and ten bottles of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' I tell you the medicine made a cure of me."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

Miss Lucy Mahan, of London, a woman-preacher, is conducting a very successful series of meetings in the Methodist church, South, at Harrodsburg. The church is crowded to its full capacity at each service.

The Southern Baptist Convention began its sessions in Savannah Friday with 1,707 delegates in attendance. Former Gov. Eagle, of Arkansas, was re-elected president. The foreign mission report showed great receipts, Kentucky contributing $23,241.77.

Ollie Terrill, our popular cashier, was called to Richmond Saturday. Wonder what the attraction Mr. Lewis Morgan's children are all down with the mumps.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Patten Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.' For sale by Craig & Hocker."

In an interview at Jackson Judge James Hargis declares that there is not a family in Breathitt county some one of whose members has not been slain by Marcum blood. Judge Hargis asserts that politics is at the bottom of the existing troubles in Breathitt. He declares he has been persecuted and vilified, and that republican leaders have endeavored to run him out of the county. He says he is a business man and has been too busy to mix up in feudal troubles, but that the late James B. Marcum was reared in an atmosphere of feuds. He bitterly assails the reputation of the dead man and says that Marcum was generally unpopular in the county. Judge Hargis makes a sweeping denial of charges that he has been connected in any way with the assassinations in Breathitt and states that his own life has been threatened on numerous occasions.

Her selection afforded a rare opportunity for her beautiful soprano voice, but the scope was sufficient to show the high artistic standard used in sending forth into space with a high degree of feeling those expressive tones twinkling like the stars and inspired by the Almighty Giver. She is cordially invited to sing again next Sunday.

To The Democracy of Lincoln County.

I acknowledge in advance of a legal count of the vote, my defeat at the polls on the 9th and accept without complaint, the action of my party, and hereby renew my allegiance to its principals and pledge unreservedly, my support to my successful opponent. I am yours truly,

M. F. NORTH.

THE Democratic State ticket nominated Saturday is as follows: Governor, J. C. W. Beckham; Lieutenant Governor, W. P. Thorne; Auditor, S. W. Hager; Treasurer, Henry M. Bosworth; Secretary of State, H. V. McChesney; Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. H. Fuqua; Commissioner of Agriculture, Hubert Vreeland. In the races for Attorney General and Clerk of the Court of Appeals it will take the official count to decide who the winners are. The contending gentlemen in these races are Hon. N. B. Hays and Willard Mitchell for the former office and R. L. Greene and Morgan Chinn for the latter.

It took a good many ballots to supply the primary election Saturday. The Fulton Leader, which got them out, says it printed 325,000 and that the express bill was on 10,890 pounds. Each ballot is 26 inches long and when placed end to end the entire edition would be 704,166 feet, or 133 1-3 miles long. Laid flat, placed one on top of the other, they would reach the enormous height of 162 1/2 feet. As each ballot had to be printed on both sides, it will be seen what a big job it was, and the execution by the Leader in the short time allowed speaks volumes in praise of its force and mechanical capacity.

THE Detroit conference of the National Congress of Mothers favored uniform divorce laws and denounced polygamy in Utah. It failed to define the divorce law which it would approve for the entire country. Until we have a divorce law in every State forbidding remarriage of divorced persons during the life of a divorced partner, but little headway will be made in curing the evil. Statistics have frequently shown that more than three-fourths of the divorces in the United States are secured for immediate remarriage to another person already selected.

THE primary election is now a matter of history. The democrats of Kentucky have spoken. They have named their standard bearers for the ensuing November campaign, and now let every man who is a democrat or who claims to be a democrat, nail the ticket to his masthead and with colors flying, sail into every port and with one voice proclaim what they are. Those on the ticket are all good men, of integrity and worth, for democracy will have no other kind and none need hesitate about what the result is going to be.

HON. VINCENT BOREING showed his strength in the railroad convention at Paris by pulling A. T. Siler through. Mr. Siler's following was not the largest by many votes when the convention was called to order, but when Mr. Boreing rolled up his sleeves and went into the fight, every thing went his way.

WHEN the beef packing companies were fined for violating the anti-trust laws they didn't kick or appeal to high courts. They paid their fines and forthwith proceeded to reimburse themselves by putting up the price of steaks.

THE New York World of Sunday is said to have been the largest paper ever printed. It was the 20th anniversary of Mr. Pulitzer's management and had 136 pages; the edition weighed 50 tons and cost more than $50,000.

THE State primary is over. Now let the State Central Committee settle the muddle in this judicial district by calling a primary; or better still, declare Judge Saufley and Mr. Oswley the nominees—which they are.

Sam Black defeated J. J. C. Bond for Representative in Mercer county.

HENRY YOUNCE, aged 80, died at Brodhead, where he and his wife were visiting, Sunday. He lived on the K. C. in Rockcastle.

"In due time I will announce my candidacy for sheriff," said Mr. Samuel M. Owens to us yesterday. We agree with Mr. Owens that there is plenty of time yet to do so.

MR. J. C. HAYS, a good democrat and splendid citizen of the East End, told us yesterday that he is being urged by his friends to run for jailer and that he will probably do so.

We desire to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness to us during our late illness. Their good deeds will never be forgotten. Mr. and Mrs. John Brackett.

READ Hon. M. F. North's card. He is a democrat in defeat as well as in success. Such men are in demand and it will not be long before the democracy will remember him again.

$40 in gold will be given to the winners of the 10th Annual Contest for young ladies here June 19th. This will be a great event and will draw the largest crowd ever seen in Walton's Opera House.

THE residence of Mr. W. P. Walton at Lexington was entered the other night, but fortunately nothing was stolen. Entrance was effected by raising a window to the dining room. Two other houses in the same portion of town were entered the same night.

THE young ladies of the Baptist church will give a green tea at the parsonage Friday evening, May 15th. An elaborate menu has been prepared and an abundance of spring offerings secured and everybody cordially invited. Tea will be served promptly at 3 p. m.

SOME JOHNS.—In the Highland section John Young's daughter married John Spire. Mr. Spire's oldest daughter married John Surber, the next married John Bryant, the third married John Hatt and another John is trying with might and main to win the heart of his fourth daughter.

THE PRIMARY.—About 1,250 votes were polled Saturday and the stereotyped phrase, "the election passed off quietly" tells the tale well. The following gentlemen carried Lincoln county by the majorities opposite their names: Thorne 194, Chensault 526, Bosworth 547, Hays 249, Fuqua 31, Vreeland 2, Green 114.

MR. FREDERICK J. HOFFMANN gave a well attended recital in Fulton Hall last evening. The program presented some of the most difficult pieces of music written; difficult not only as regards mechanical mastery, but principally as to the conception and expression of their intellectual and emotional contents.—Cincinnati Times Star.

MR. JNO. D. BURTON, of Burnside, en route to Stanford to take the train to London where he was summoned to serve on the U. S. petit jury, jumped from the vehicle in which he was riding near Dwight Root's as the horse bled to a huggy occupied by Mrs. John Murphy and little daughter dashed by, running and kicking. He caught the horse after quite a run and probably saved the occupants from injury.

THE vote in the Legislative race was as follows:

	Alverson	North
Stanford 1	61	33
" 2	62	39
" 3	89	38
" 4	54	12
Crab Orchard 1	53	34
" 2	99	40
Waynesburg 1	58	38
" 2	51	32
" 3	54	13
Hustonsville 1	21	155
" 2	7	90
" 3	40	59
Total	654	593

"You have no idea how many people call me up to ask the time," said Miss Nettie Wray, of the Stanford Telephone Exchange, to us the other day. "While I am glad to serve the public in any reasonable way, it seems foolish to be called for such a purpose, and especially when clocks and watches are so cheap," she added. Evidently it is a case of thoughtlessness and if the people generally knew how busy the telephone operator is they would never call her unless they really needed her. The business is a most trying one on one's nerves and it would require a person with the patience of Job to answer civilly and good naturedly all of the silly questions propounded.

COURT DAY.—There were about 150 cattle on the market yesterday and prices ranged from 3 to 4 1/2c for the various grades. The market was quiet. Mules sold at $75 to $125 and Southern horses at $75 to $100.

"PROSPECTS look good at present for us poor farmers. Wheat is in good condition, corn planting nearly all done and every thing in due shape. Started to plowing my first planting this morning. Three cheers for Beckham, Thorne, Alverson and Bosworth," writes G. A. Swinebroad, of Hubble.

Senator Foraker has prepared a resolution endorsing President Roosevelt for another term, and will offer it as a plank in the Ohio republican platform at next month's State convention.

A. T. Siler was nominated on the 29th ballot for railroad commissioner at the Paris convention. Mr. Siler lives at Williamsburg and is a law partner of Commonwealth's Attorney J. N. Sharp.

In the opinion of Representative Swanson, of Virginia, the presidential talk about Grover Cleveland will have the effect of uniting the democratic party, and will probably result in the nomination of Parker or Gorman.

Friends of John C. Wood at Mt. Sterling are sore over the action of Congressman Vincent Boreing, who made a strenuous fight for Siler and to whose influence they attribute Wood's defeat in the republican convention at Paris.

William F. Vilas, former Senator from Wisconsin, declared in an interview that Mr. Cleveland would not be a candidate for the presidential nomination. He said he drew this conclusion from correspondence and talks with the former president.

J. N. Sharp, of Whitley, referred to Caleb Powers in the Paris convention as that brilliant and brave gentleman. It can hardly be said that the conspiracy the fellow conceived was a very brilliant one or his conduct very brave. He got his tools to do the work, while he conveniently had business in Louisville.—Lexington Democrat

In the county court yesterday the will of Mrs. J. B. Green was probated. She left all of her property to her son, Edward E. Eubanks. Some settlements were made and a small amount of routine business done.

THE LOST RIB.—Don't forget the lecture to be given at Hustonville, Friday evening, May 15 at 8 o'clock, by Ward Russell, the Texas humorist. The Courier Journal says that he is an entertaining lecturer. "The lecture is highly spoken of by all who heard it."—Christian Century, Chicago Adult 25c, children 15c.

UNDER a good picture of Hon. Harvey Helm, of this place, the Mt. Vernon Signal says: "The splendid and gentlemanly county attorney of Lincoln, is not only one of the best officers in the State, but is one of the most public spirited, one of the best and most enthusiastic democrats and in fact one of the best all round fellows to be found anywhere. It looks to us very much like some fine Congressional timber can be found right here and we believe the eighth district democrats will think the same way before many more elections have come and gone."

THE Street Fair at Lancaster is in full blast and large crowds are attending daily. Go over and spend a few hours of pleasure with our neighbors in Garrard. Tomorrow, Wednesday, is horse show day and the best stallion will receive a premium of $25, the best mare or gelding $15, best high school horse $10. Thursday there will be an old fashioned cake walk, when a big prize will be given. There will be other attractions for the day. Friday will have the worst turnout, the mule, race and the big dive by Prof. Speedy Saturday, the last day, will be a corker. The fat man's race will attract a big crowd. Following are the entries to date: Logan Leon, W. B. Mason, Ed Morrow, J. Joseph, A. H. Bastin and W. S. Gooch. Committee, J. C. Hemphill, John Conn, John White; L. L. Walker starter. There will be a 100-yard dash besides, with John Walker, Ed Doty, John Anderson and Geo. Smith. At 1:30 P. M. a public marriage in Ferris Wheel through megaphone by the county judge. License and marriage free and the bride and groom will be escorted on a bridal tour through the entire carnival.

ALVERSON A WINNER.—In the primary of Saturday, Mr. Jesse M. Alverson, of this office, defeated Hon. M. F. North for representative by a majority of 61 votes, carrying nine out of the 12 precincts in the county. Mr. Alverson's success is a remarkable victory for him, everything considered, and it stamps him as one of the shrewdest politicians in this section. Mr. North had creditably represented the county in the Legislature twice and was strong with the people of all sections, and when Mr. Alverson announced his candidacy the general impression was that Mr. North would "beat him a block." But that is where the people were wrong. Mr. Alverson had given the race considerable thought and had "fixed up his fences" to some extent before his announcement appeared. In fact he laid the foundation for an organization that was well nigh perfect when election day came. Instead of keeping a record of those who were for him, he had the names of his enemies, so to speak, written in his book as well as upon his memory, and some time was spent in convincing some of these of the error of their way. The result of his good work is his nomination and for it the credit is due largely to his untiring energy and political tact. Of course he had friends to help him and to them he is exceedingly grateful, as is the writer who has known Mr. Alverson for 10 long years and for whom he has the kindest feeling. The INTERIOR JOURNAL claims no victory in his nomination, but is glad of his good luck. It took no sides in the race, believing it was not judicious to do so, but its editor would prove ungrateful for valiant services and for a friendship he knows is genuine. If he did not feel good over the success of Mr. Alverson, who is in every way deserving of the nomination given him. While congratulating the victor, we confess to a feeling of sorrow for the vanquished. Having heretofore supported Mr. North in all of his races, he knows how we feel toward him and we are satisfied that that good feeling is reciprocated. He is a good man and democrat, a tireless party worker and his defeat of Saturday does not mean a schilling of him by a jug full.

Clothing Pointers!

Quality, Fit and Workmanship

Should be noticed closely before a Suit is purchased. All these points are important. See that the coat fronts are well stiffened so that they will set up well on the chest and not wrinkle back, this keeps the lapels up in place whether the coat is buttoned or unbuttoned. The collars should be put on by hand. The button holes should be worked by hand. Our large stock of Perfect Fitting Clothing have all these points of superiority. We are the only dealers in Stanford selling Clothing made with PATENT SHAPE RETAINING COAT FRONTS. Our values are the best, our fits are perfect. See our large assortment of patterns.
